

Locations:

Brazil, South America

The Oblate Sisters have served in the country of Brazil since 1966. Today the foundation has grown with several Brazilian Sisters serving in four locations. They are:

Casa Madre Teresa in the Diocese of Sao Luis – Maranhao. This is the Regional Convent and Novitiate. The Sisters direct and teach in the “Parque Jaire,” School; they also serve in Pastoral Ministry.

Casa San Marcello. This community of Oblate Sisters is situated in the interior of the diocese. The Sisters teach within the region and assist in pastoral outreach.

Casa Madre Teresa in Rosario. This convent is also located in the interior. The Sisters collaborate with the priest in Pastoral Ministry.

Casa “Mons. Guido M. Casullo” in the Diocese of Zè Doca. This too is a convent situated in the interior. The Sisters serve the poor in Pastoral Ministry.
