In 1992 two Oblate Sisters and an Oblate Sister General Councilor traveled to the Diocese of Trivandrum in Kerala. The initial goal of the Sisters was to introduce the charism of the Oblate Sisters to the priests and laity of the diocese, to welcome young women discerning a vocation to religious life, and to begin to assist the diocesan priests in whatever way possible. After one year the Sisters procured land and began building the Oblate Sisters Initial Formation House. Today, with the help of God and the generous support of so many benefactors, the Oblate Sisters have grown in number and currently serve in three dioceses in five locations.

Kazhakuttom, Convent of the Sacred Heart. This is the Initial Formation Convent; here the Sisters also conduct after school tutoring and do Pastoral ministry.

Kumarapuram is in the Diocese of Trivandrum. It is in this city that the Oblate Sisters established a Home for elderly and infirm priests. The Sisters also do pastoral ministry in the adjoining parish.

Kristu Kiran Boys Home at Thevanpara in the Diocese of Neyattyynkara. The Oblate Sisters educate children from the poor coastal region.

The Oblate Sisters also serve in Thachancode situated in the interior where they do Pastoral Ministry. The Oblate Sisters also serve in the Diocese of Quilon in Kottiyam.
